“The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.”

Bhutan - Land of Happiness

Bhutan often referred to as 'Land of the Thunder Dragon' or 'the last Shangri La' on earth, is situated in the lap of Eastern Himalayas between India and the People's Republic of China. Covering an area of 38,394 sq km, the tiny Himalayan Kingdom is one of the most isolated nations in the world. It is in the relatively unexplored pockets of Asia, which allows only a limited number of discerning travelers to preserve its fragile environment and culture in its magical purity.

This country of rolling hills and deep crags exudes immense charm. The mountains are magnificent, the forest is dense, the people are delightful, the air is pure, the architecture inspiring, simple religious beliefs permeate every aspect of life and art is exemplary. Like timeless images from the past, the traveler encounters the full glory of this ancient land through its strategic fortresses known as Dzongs, numerous ancient temples, monasteries and stupas which dot the countryside, prayer flags which flutter along the high ridges, wild animals which abound in dense forests, and the warm smile of its friendly people.
